Touch This

Ordinary Janes with a hankering for intrigue and adventure can make like Angelina Jolie with this Tissot T-Touch watch. Worn by Jolie's kick-ass assassin character in the action adventure Mr. & Mrs. Smith, this high-tech timepiece has a tactile crystal that's activated by your fingertips and performs a multitude of functions (but it won't call up Brad Pitt). It can display a chronograph, a compass, barometric pressure readings, an alarm, the temperature, an altimeter and, yes, it also tells the time and date. Now you can be prepared for any and all situations. $950

Caftan Chic

There's nothing like a caftan to conjure up images of a jet-set life and exotic locales. Think Yves Saint Laurent and Talitha Getty in the '70s, lounging in Morocco. Join the caftan caravan and invest in one of these surprisingly versatile tops that are all the rage this summer. But, rather than the tie-dyed boho styles once favoured by hippies and still found in head shops, check out these chic handcrafted styles from Toronto designer Sushma Kilachand. You'll keep your cool and look chic even if your jet-setting extends no farther than a few city blocks. Linen, $185 (top), and $140 (bottom), Sushk.
